PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I was looking at an old ledger book from the formation of the club in 1975. At the time dues were $3.

A lot has changed since then. The club is more than collecting stamps, many of the members have built lasting friendships. The club has had outside activities like the Post Office tour and the stamp evaluation program and many more events over the years. I really miss the camaraderie.

The club recently purchased a subscription to a video conferencing program, ZOOM. For those not familiar ZOOM is video communications, with an easy, reliable cloud platform for video and audio conferencing, chat, and webinars. etc. I am suggesting that we organize member chat sessions. All you need is access to the internet via a device with a camera and microphone. If you are interested drop me a note at hamtwnphil@gmail.com and I will organize a chat.

Stay Safe.

HTPS Meetings . . .

Meetings are held on the 3rd Tuesday of each month at the Hamilton Township Library, 1 Justice Samuel A. Alito, Jr. Way, just off Whitehorse Mercerville Road, Hamilton, NJ (Mercer County). Doors open at 6:30.

VOICES OF THE HARLEM RENAISSANCE

... by Ronald H. Gonzalez, MD

On May 21, 2020, the U. S. Post Office issued a set of four stamps commemorating the Harlem renaissance of the 1920's. It commemorates four African Americans distinguished in arts and literature. The stamps portray Alain Locke, Nella Larsen, Anne Spencer, and Arturo Schomburg. Arturo was born in Santurce, Puerto Rico, a suburb of San Juan – the same town where I was born.

The four individuals are depicted in stylized pastel portraits with African-inspired motifs and background. Nella Larsen was a novelist, librarian, and nurse; Alain Locke was a writer, philosopher, educator, and arts advocate; Arturo Schomburg was a bibliophile historian, writer, and activist; and Anne Spencer was a poet.

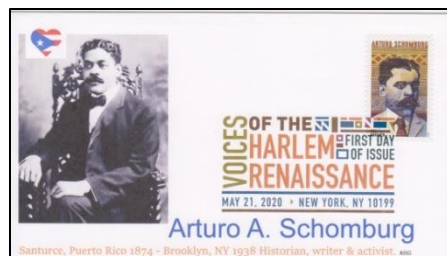

The stamps are printed in sheets of 160 and cut into eight panes of 20. They are non-denominated self-adhesive forever stamps for the first-class rate (55c). The art director, designer, typographer and artist is Greg Breeding. The Modelers are Sandra Lane and Michelle Fin. 16,000,000 stamps were printed by the Banknote Corp of America on an Alprinta 74 press.

As usual I prepared envelopes to be cancelled at the ceremony. Two postmarks were available: a black pictorial and a digital color postmark (shown below on covers with the cachet that I created).

I had planned to attend the first day ceremony, but it was cancelled due to the COVID-19 virus.

So, I sent them to Kansas City for processing. The USPS has not set a date for an official ceremony. When they do, I hope to attend.
