March - April Meetings

The March meeting includes a discussion on the responsibilities of the HTPS officer positions. We will also review the non-elective supporting posts. Both groups are shown on the last page of this newsletter. We ask all members to consider running for office or volunteering for one of the support positions.

HTPS member Gary Loew is back with a new presentation titled “The Bathurst Connection: The Centrality of Gambia to the Development of Transatlantic Air Mail.” Last year, Gary presented a paper on this subject at a Postal History Symposium which was held at the APS Center in Bellefonte, PA.

In April we accept nominations for the officer positions. HTPS elections are held in May. HTPS members will offer mini-presentations on their collecting interests or items of fancy.

Remember that the business meeting now starts at 7:15pm, but come early to check out the displays, free publications and items for trade / sale. Or just come to chat with your fellow philatelists.

Stamp Identification

Surprise – no correct responses to identify last issue’s stamp. It has been a while since that happened so we will save that stamp for a future date.

Meanwhile, here is a more recent stamp to test your skills. Why is the cute youngster on this issue? Get out those stamp catalogs and find out.

$1.00 in mint U.S. stamps for the first correct responder.

In this Issue . . .

- Meeting Proceedings
 - Mickey Mouse Postcards
 - Countries Nobody Collects
 - Philatelic Events
 - Stamp Out Cancer Auction
- ... and much more!

President’s Message

March is coming and winter is ending so it is time to talk about HTPS nominations and elections. At the March meeting, we will discuss the duties of the Officers and supporting positions.

The past three years went by fast for me and serving as President has been a rewarding experience. We were able to continue out mix of presentations by outside speakers and HTPS members. Our meetings have been educational and stimulating and we want to continue with this approach.

As satisfying as it has been for me, it is important that we bring “new blood” into the HTPS leadership to keep the meetings fresh and the ideas flowing. So consider running for one of the Officer positions. You will not regret it. Nominations are put forth in April and elections are held in May.

HTPS Meetings . . .

Meetings are held on the 3rd Tuesday each month starting at 7:15pm at the Hamilton Township Library, 1 Justice Samuel A. Alito, Jr. Way, off Whitehorse Mercerville Road, Hamilton, NJ (Mercer County).

Meeting Proceedings . . . by Jack Sack

Our January gathering was the first meeting that started at 7:15pm to accommodate the library's earlier closing time. The minutes were not read for the same reason, but are posted during the meeting and are also available on our website.

The primary business discussion was the proposal for an exhibition at the Princeton High School. Given that our group had never organized such an event and the amount of work that would need to be done in a short time, it was decided to postpone the exhibition.

We were pleased to learn that our Secretary, Bob Stolarz, is recovering from his recent surgery. We wish Bob a speedy recovery.

The formal meeting was followed by a short video presentation of a segment from CBS's Sunday Morning television program on stamp collecting which included a cameo appearance by two of our members – Tony Zingale and Jack Sack shown below!

The other highlight of the meeting was the semi-annual auction. Auctioneer Tony Zingale did a great job of adding a bit of humor while keeping the proceedings moving along. There were a wide range of items on the auction block – individual and packets of stamps, post cards, catalogs, supplies, stock books and albums. A number of items sold above their minimum bid.

A good time was had by all while adding a bit to our treasury. We look forward to our next auction, in June, for another chance to pick up philatelic bargains.

Our thanks to Andrew Boyajian, Milt Keiles and Ed Murtha for donating their auction earnings to the HTPS treasury.

The inclement weather did not deter a good crowd at our February meeting. One of the main topics of the business meeting was the NOJEX stamp show to be held in Secaucus from May 29-31. We are looking for volunteers to help with the set-up of the exhibits on Thursday, May 28th. Please contact Ed Murtha if you are interested in helping out. Sid Morginstin has offered a 10% discount to HTPS members (with their HTPS membership card) at his booth at the show.

We are also planning on doing a mailing to philatelists in the area inviting them to attend one of our regular meetings. Jim Cope passed around the Linn's US Stamp Popularity Poll. He collected the ballots and will send them to Linn's.

Our featured speaker of the evening was long-time HTPS member Tom Deluca who gave a presentation on Mickey Mouse post cards. Tom is the owner of Trenton Stamp and Coin located on Route 33 in Hamilton Square, NJ. Tom always surprises us with a wonderful presentation on a philatelic related topic. Not surprisingly, his 35th consecutive yearly appearance delivered the goods.

Tom has one of the largest known collections of "Real Photo Postcards" with images of Mickey. He treated us to a viewing of some of his rare and unique cards from the U.S. and over 60 countries.

Some of the cards featured Mickey in a prominent role as the famous rodent we know while others have only a small doll or image of Mickey in the photo often in the background. See the next page for more about Mickey Mouse postcards.

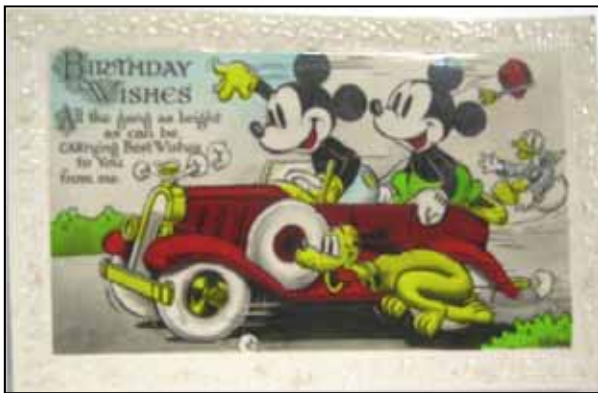

We thank Tom for taking time to share a part of his fabulous postcard collection with us and look forward to his next annual appearance and another mystery presentation.

Mickey Mouse Postcards

Note: The images on this page are all Real Photo Postcards and standard 3 ½ by 5 ½ size that have been reduced (or cropped or both) for this article.

One of the most fascinating aspects of Tom DeLuca's collection of Mickey Mouse post cards, and the presentation he made in February, is the postcard depiction of the world-wide popularity of this cartoon character and Mickey's place in our culture.

Mickey first appeared in a short film, "Steamboat Willie" in 1928, and his popularity grew rapidly not only in the US but in Europe as well. Disney actively marketed Mickey Mouse movies in Europe where the theatres were not controlled by the big US studios. By 1932, there were Mickey comic books, Mickey dolls, and, of course, post cards.

In the U.S., Mickey appeared much as we know him today (as shown above with Minnie Mouse), but in Europe and other countries, he was often drawn in a rodent-like image and depicted in different roles as shown in the two cards below (as a big-headed figure and as an usher).

Mickey sometimes appeared on postcards, not as the main attraction, but as part of everyday life. The card below shows Mickey on a drum playing a harmonica. This real photo image was taken inside a German POW camp, Stalag III-B, near Frankfurt, Germany.

The "Mickey Bar" was a popular tourist place to go in Europe during the 1930's through 1950's. The food was good and often the music was American jazz. The cropped photo card below shows a "Mickey Bar" in Montmorency, France.

[Editor's Note: This article is based on Tom DeLuca's presentation at our February meeting and material from Tom's article in the Washington Crossing Card Collectors Club (WC4) newsletter #505. A copy is available at our website on the 'Presentations' panel.]

Countries Nobody Collects . . . by Jack Sack

Many collectors specialize in United States stamps, or countries in Western Europe or perhaps British Colonies. One of my current interests is collecting stamps from countries that “Nobody Collects”. It began about six months ago when a dealer offered me a set of old, empty Minkus albums from about 1985 he had obtained from a worldwide collector. Most of the albums in the collection had already been sold, leaving only a dozen or so from countries nobody else wanted. I found some more unwanted albums on-line, and now have about 50 different countries in my collection.

Many of the albums are for countries in South America (Peru, Chile, Ecuador, Uruguay, Paraguay), the Middle East (Afghanistan, Iran, Syria), or Eastern Europe (Romania, Bulgaria, Turkey). Even Asia has countries nobody collects such as Viet Nam and Mongolia.

So far, I have limited myself to spending no more than 25¢ per stamp. Even so, I have made a pretty good dent in many collections. I have found a good way to get started – buy a “beginner’s” collection to fill in many of the common stamps. That gets the country rolling usually for 2¢ or 3¢ a stamp. I can now spend the day at Don Bunker’s and Ryan Terlecky’s tables at Hightstown trying to fill in the rest of the collection.

I have estimated that I would need around 100,000 stamps to fill the albums, with most valued at less than $1. On a good day, I can find 300-400 stamps I need at less than 25¢. At that rate, it will take me about 250 stamp shows. That does not include a number of albums, such as West Indies (Cuba, Haiti, Dominican Republic) I haven’t even started yet!

Stamp Show Change

Starting on April 11th, the 2nd Saturday Stamp Bourse is moving from its current location in Hightstown to Bordentown at the Bordentown Senior Center, 3 Municipal Drive, Bordentown, NJ 08505.

The location is about 10-15 minutes south of the Hightstown show. Take the Farnsworth Avenue exit off of Route 206 or Route 130. It is one minute from Route 295 (Exit 57) or Exit 7 of the NJ Turnpike.

Start time is now 8:30am as Ryan Terlecky needs to setup the tables. Further details and dealer information is available at our website on the ‘Useful Links’ panel.

Westfield / DELPEX Shows

The annual Westfield Stamp Show & Exhibition is scheduled for March 7. Check out their website at www.westfieldstampclub.org for more information on their group and the show.

Many of the Westfield club’s members have provided presentations at our meetings over the past decade. So let’s return the favor and attend the show.

On April 18, the Brandywine Valley Stamp club will hold their annual Stamp Show and Bourse (DELPEX 2015). This year, our favorite 10-cent dealer, Ryan Terlecky, will have tables showcasing tens of thousands of stamps. For details, check out their website at: www.brandywinevalleystampclub.com.
